

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH, CARRIAGE OVERTURNED BY CAR AND ONE MAN KILLED

Chief Executive Is Cut And Bruised—Secretary Cortelyou Is Also Injured.

LENOX, Mass., Sept. 3.—A terrible accident overtook the President's coach a short distance from Pittsfield about 10 o'clock this morning. After a short visit to the home of Senator Dawes, the President started on the long drive to Lenox. He had not gone far when an electric car ran into his vehicle, throwing every one to the ground and badly damaging the coach.

Instantly Killed.

The President received a cut on the head. Secretary Geo. B. Cortelyou was bruised and his head cut. Governor Crane was bruised. William Craig, secret service agent, was instantly killed. D. J. Pratt, the driver of the coach, sustained a fracture of the skull which it is feared will result fatally. The President was able to resume his journey to Lenox, but sent word ahead there should be no cheering.

Struck by a Car.

The accident happened at a point about a mile and a half from this city near the Pittsfield Country Club house. The President was enjoying a coach trip from Dalton, Governor Crane's home, where the President spent the night, to Lenox, a distance of twenty miles over the Berkshire hills.

The car was in charge of Conductor James Kelly, with Motorman Luke J. Madden on the front platform.

The car struck the coach in the rear and smashed in the back of the vehicle, tipping it over and throwing its occupants to the ground.

The car was not badly damaged.

Motorman Madden and the conductor were at once arrested and brought to Pittsfield.

After leaving Senator Dawes' house, the four carriages containing the President and his immediate party were driven down South street, two carriages on either side.

When near the Pittsfield Country Club house and at the railroad crossing, the electric car was noticed coming at a terrific rate of speed.

President Thrown Out.

Mr. Craig signalled to the motorman to stop, but he apparently paid no attention to the warning.

A witness of the accident stated that the motorman was speeding his car in order to reach the club.

The President, Governor Crane and Secretary Cortelyou were piled up in a heap.

The awe-stricken crowd which witnessed the accident, rushed to the President's carriage, with no expectation that he would be found alive.

The President was cut on the right side of his chin and his face is much swollen.

Pratt, the driver of the coach was taken to the Pittsfield hospital.

Wounds Are Dressed.

The President and Secretary Cortelyou, with the other members of the party, went to the Country Club, where their wounds were dressed. In a short time they proceeded to the Curtis Hotel at Lenox, arriving there at 11 o'clock.

The President retained his usual composure, although he was solicitous for the rest of those in the carriage.

The excitement was intense and rumors flew thick and fast that the President had been killed.

After remaining at the scene of the accident for an hour, the President determined to continue his journey to Stockbridge.

After a brief stop at Lenox, he was driven to the train.

Change in Plans.

In the next carriage to the President's when the accident happened, was Dr. G. A. Lung, of the navy, who accompanied the President for just such emergencies, and who was promptly on hand to render assistance.

But the President was disinclined to receive medical attention, saying he was but slightly hurt.

The President's program today included a journey through Connecticut and he was to stop at Lenox and Stockbridge and Great Barrington, Mass., and at New Milford and Bridgeport in Connecticut.

Man Who Was Guarding The President Is Instantly Killed—Driver's Skull Fractured

At Bridgeport, the yacht Sylph was speed. The carriage was struck as it was crossing the tracks diagonally.

How Craig Was Killed.

Craig, who was looking around, and half standing, trying to warn the trolley car, was knocked from the box to the tracks, the car passing over him, killing him instantly.

The carriage was knocked to one side and wrecked. The President was thrown out and the wreck of the carriage fell against him. He was picked Another Account.

Another account of the accident says that the trolley car was coming up behind the President's carriage at terrific

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE LANE FOR GOVERNOR.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—Lane Nominated.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—Before the assembling of the Convention, it was announced that Geary had decided to withdraw from the gubernatorial nomination and that James V. Coleman of San Francisco would be named in his stead.

The Convention took up the order of making nominations for Governor at 2:45 o'clock.

Mr. Barrett of San Francisco was the first to claim the platform.

Mr. Barrett nominated James V. Coleman of San Francisco.

Mr. Barrett, in his preliminary remarks, told of the great concern the laboring party of the State had in the deliberations of the Convention and said he would present the name of a man whose democracy had never been questioned, whose character was of the highest. His candidate would fulfil all the requirements demanded by the conditions of the political situation.

Seth Mann of Alameda arose amid cheers to place in nomination Franklin K. Lane of Alameda.

Mr. Mann declared that Mr. Lane represented no set of men, no faction and was not controlled by any influence. All men, be they humble or powerful, would receive the same justice at Mr. Lane's hands. In any decisions, he might be called upon to make, he could be trusted to do the right.

The speaker declared Mr. Lane to be safe, sure and strong. In emergency or peril, the people would find in Mr. Lane a man of courage, a man of self-denial and self-respect. He is a man of the plain people and his earliest sympathies were with them because he is one of them. A working man himself, he was in touch with the laboring element.

Mr. Mann told of Mr. Lane's life, his rise from a messenger boy, clerk, printer and working newspaperman, to a position of official trust in San Francisco. His political life, his public life, had won for him good friends and true.

Thomas F. O'Connor of San Francisco seconded Lane's nomination.

Frank Finlayson of Los Angeles endorsed the nomination of his old friend and school-fellow—Franklin K. Lane.

Ex-Congressman Thomas J. Geary was the next speaker. He seconded the nomination of James V. Coleman.

Edward White of Santa Cruz nominated Thomas O. Toland of Ventura.

He told of the victory Toland had won in a Republican district when running for State Equalizer and predicted like success if Mr. Toland were chosen by the Convention. He declared that Toland had erected no antagonisms and would have the support of all Democrats.

ROUTINE WORK.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—Delay was the chief characteristic of this morning's session of the Democratic State Convention. The platform Committee found so many problems confronting it and so many subjects to dwell upon, some of them requiring delicate handling, that even after 11 o'clock today, after an all-night session, the document was not ready for presentation.

It was exactly noon when Chairman Caminetti of the Committee, announced its readiness to present the platform. In the meantime a recess had been declared for the meeting of the various District Conventions, and the selection of a State Central Committee.

The early hours found the Lane followers still extremely confident of his gubernatorial prospects, while the Geary wing exhibited the same cautious demeanor, maintaining that victory was in sight.

It was rumored that the long delay in the presentation of the platform, was due to a desire to injure the Lane candidacy, but Gavin McNab, who is directing the forces of that wing, scoffed at the suggestion and declared that even at that hour the Geary people were considering the withdrawal of their candidate.

CONVENTION HALL, Sacramento, Sept. 3.—Nine o'clock was the hour for the re-assembling of the Democratic State Convention this morning but long after 10 o'clock, the Platform Committee was still laboring with the various planks in the document.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The report of the Committee on Order of Business was next presented.

R. M. Clarken, presented a resolution deploring the death of the late State Senator J. H. Sewell. The resolution was adopted by a rising vote.

Edward Leake moved that the chairman of the Convention be authorized to send a telegram to President Roosevelt, congratulating him on his escape from injury. The motion was adopted.

On account of the continued delay in the arrival of the report of the committee on platform a recess of ten minutes was taken to permit of the district conventions holding sessions.

READS REPORT.

It was exactly 12 o'clock when the Convention took up the course of business. Ex-Congressman Caminetti read the report of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions.

Resolutions in memory of the late United States Senator Stephen M. White, were read by the secretary, having been presented by Ed Leake and during the reading the Convention, actuated by a common impulse, arose and remained standing until the end of the resolution.

William Smythe, candidate for Congress from the Eighth district, spoke of the character of Senator White, praising his career in the Senate and dwelling upon the purity of his political life, declaring that his fame was as immortal as Democratic principles.

The resolutions in memoriam were adopted by a rising vote.

Recess until 2 p. m.

WHAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SAID AFTER THE ACCIDENT.

STOCKBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 3.—The President arrived in Stockbridge shortly before 12 o'clock, having driven leisurely across the country from Lenox. The people had turned out to give him a welcome, but the news of the accident had preceded him.

His face was badly swollen and he was suffering pain, but not to disappoint the crowd, many of whom had driven some distance to see him, he stopped long enough to say a few words.

He spoke as follows: "I presume you have heard that our party had an accident in which one man was killed. Therefore I shall not address you beyond thanking you for your kind reception and request that you make no applause or demonstration of any kind."

The President went immediately to his train, which left as he got aboard. He was calm and collected and deplored the death of Craig.

"I presume you have heard that our party had an accident in which one man was killed. Therefore I shall not address you beyond thanking you for your kind reception and request that you make no applause or demonstration of any kind."

On the right of him was the driver, Pratt, who was thrown a distance of twenty feet.

The President asked the motorman:

"Why were you running your car like that?" which brought only the response, "Because I had the right of way."

The President said that when he saw the car coming at such terrific speed, he felt that all in the carriage would surely be killed.

Another carriage was procured, and in company with Governor Crane, Secretary Cortelyou and Representative Lawrence, the start was made for Lenox.

The swelling on the President's face was getting larger all the while, but he kept his appointment at the Aspinwall Hotel, where he referred to the accident, assuring the people that he was not badly hurt, and requesting them not to applaud.

EXCITEMENT AT OYSTER BAY.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Sept. 3.—News that the President had been injured in Massachusetts caused great excitement, and the rights and telegraph offices were soon besieged by residents anxious to obtain particulars. When it was learned that the President was not seriously hurt, expressions of thankfulness were heard on all sides.

WANTED BITS OF CARRIAGE

SOUVENIR HUNTERS NEARLY PICK WRECKED VEHICLE TO PIECES.

PITTSFIELD, Sept. 3.—The accident became gratifying to the souvenir hunters who poured into the streets and surrounded the wrecked carriage and car, shouting at the motorman and conductor and creating a disturbance. Almost immediately persons began snatching the fragments of the carriage in which the President had been injured. The fragments were quickly summoned prevent the entire demolition of the vehicle by souvenir hunters.

Immediately after the accident the motorman and conductor were placed under arrest and taken to the police station. The crowd giving them a stormy reception as they passed along the street. Meanwhile Medical Examiner Scott had arrived and, finding the body of Craig was at the Stevens house, proceeded there to perform his duty.

The medical examiner found that no extensive examination would be necessary and an undertaker was called, who removed the body to his rooms in the city.

NOMINATED FOR RAILROAD BOARD

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—In the third railroad district there was a spirited contest for railroad commissioner. The candidates were Timothy Spellacy of Kern county and W. H. French of Alameda county. Spellacy was nominated by a vote of 151 to 149.

NOMINATIONS MADE FOR LEGISLATURE

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—The following nominations for the Legislature have been made: For State Senator, Sixth District, M. Diggs of Gridley; Tenth District, L. R. Tullock of Angels Camp; Thirtieth, Samuel E. Vermilion of Inyo. For the Assembly, Eighth District, C. B. Andross of Marysville; Eleventh, Jacob L. Sargent of Jackson; Twelfth, B. F. THOMAS FORD FOR CONGRESS IN FIRST.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—In the First Congressional District Caminetti withdrew and Thomas Ford of Nevada county was nominated.

EIGHTH DISTRICT NAMES W. E. SMYTHE

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—The Eighth Congressional District Convention today nominated W. E. Smythe of San Diego for Congress.

PRESIDENT IS ONLY BRUISED.

HIS PHYSICIAN SAYS HIS WOUNDS ARE NOT AT ALL SERIOUS.

STOCKBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 3.—The President's physician, Dr. Lung, says the President and Mr. Cortelyou received slight contusions about the head and face, but that the injuries are not at all serious and all the scheduled stops will be made.

The President has asked Governor Crane to look after the remains of William Craig, and the Governor will personally do so.

J. B. SANFORD FOR STATE SENATOR

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—The Senatorial District comprising the counties of Lake, Mendocino, Colusa and Glenn today nominated J. B. Sanford of Mendocino for State Senator.

NO NOMINATIONS IN FOURTH AND FIFTH

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—The Fourth and Fifth Congressional District Conventions decided to meet at a future date in San Francisco to make nominations for Congress.

MRS. ROOSEVELT WILL MEET HUSBAND

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 3.—News of the accident to President Roosevelt was received at Oyster Bay shortly after noon. Mr. Loeb, Assistant Secretary to the President, received word of the accident and immediately notified Mrs. Roosevelt.

Mrs. Roosevelt, with Kermit and Ethel, accompanied by Mr. Loeb, left for Bridgeport, Connecticut. About 1:30 p. m. on board the Sylph. The President is expected to arrive here about 2 p. m.

NEWS RECEIVED ON WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—News of the accident to President Roosevelt was received in Wall street shortly before 11 o'clock. The first reports were more or less conflicting and a great decline in the stock list followed, although at no time was the market panicky.

PRESIDENT ASKED THAT NO CHEERS BE GIVEN.

He Personally Saw That Body of Craig Was Properly Cared for in a House.

PITTSFIELD, Sept. 3.—Mr. Craig has two brothers living at Springfield. They were notified of the accident, and the body will remain here until they arrive to attend to its disposition.

Having seen that the body of Craig was properly attended to in the house the President stepped to the door.

The tumult indicated great excitement among the people, seeing which President Roosevelt stepped forward into full view.

As he did so, a cheer burst forth. He quetted it with a motion of the hand.

Then he urged the people not to cheer, as one of the party was dead.

He assured the assembly that he was uninjured, but that the driver of his carriage, he feared, was fatally wounded.

He said that he should continue his journey, as it did not seem just right to disappoint the large number of people who were expecting him.

Then the President returned to the house and directions were given for another carriage to be brought.

It was soon at the door and the ride to Lenox was resumed.

As soon as the President had left the crowd began to disperse, and within a few minutes the streets had resumed their usual appearance, save for a few groups who lingered to discuss the accident.

It had not been decided at noon when the hearing of Motorman Madden and Conductor Kelly would be held.

They will be detained at police headquarters pending further action by the authorities.

PLATFORM ADOPTED BY THE DEMOCRATS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—The report of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions was adopted as follows:

"Your Committee on Platform and Resolutions submit the following report and recommend its adoption:

"The Democratic party, in State Convention assembled, recognizes that as the nation grows older, new issues are born of time and old issues perish, but the fundamental principles of Democracy advocated from Jefferson's time to our own will ever remain as the best security for the continuation of free government.

"Among these principles are: freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of conscience, the preservation of personal rights, the largest freedom of the individual consistent with good government; the equality of all persons before the law; the preservation of the Federal Government in its constitutional vigor and the support of the States in all their just rights; economy in public expenditures, maintenance of the public faith, and opposition to paternalism and all class legislation.

"The Democratic party ever has maintained and ever will maintain the supremacy of law, the independence of its judicial administration, the inviolability of contracts and the obligation of all good citizens to resist every illegal trust, combination or conspiracy against the just rights of property, and the rights and liberties of the citizen, in which are bound up the peace and happiness of the people.

"We believe the present unjust protective tariff imposed upon the people by the Republican party, and demand such a revision of our tariff laws as will result in the removal of all undue burdens and the placing of trust made goods and the necessities of life upon the free list."

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The platform adopted by the Democrats at Sacramento is an income-representational document. Aside from the sordid it administers to the Republican party, it raises petty issues and lays its greatest stress on minor local questions entirely removed from great national policies. Fancy "roasting" the California delegation in Congress for failing to get an appropriation for constructing a model highway into the Yosemite National Park! Another ridiculous thing is claiming as a Democratic measure the Arid Land Reclamation Act, which was passed by a Republican House and Senate and signed by a Republican President. A third piece of humbug is the denunciation of the veto of the bill making an appropriation to be expended by United States Engineers in exploring reservoir sites and investigating irrigation problems. This bill was passed by a Legislature Republican in both branches and was not of Democratic origin. The Governor who vetoed it is, not again a candidate; besides, his reasons for vetoing it wholly related to temporary expediency regarding expenditures.

The planks relating to the University, the Civil Service and proposed Constitutional amendment No. 28, might have been taken from the Republican platform. The utterance in regard to the Isthmian Canal is without point, for the Canal is not a party question, although the bill was passed by a Republican Congress and signed by a Republican President. The Cuban reciprocity plank is forked-tongued and insincere, while the touting over the question of Chinese exclusion is beating tom-toms over a dead issue. The strength of the platform is in inverse ratio to its length. It resembles a tapeworm in several respects, being long and thin and representing an unsatisfactory appetite. It is simply a prolonged howl for the offices.

BEEF BARONS ARE TIMID.

It is announced that the operations to organize the $500,000,000 meat trust have been suspended for the present. Apparently the trust organizers have become somewhat alarmed at the utterances of the Attorney General. The temper of the public, too, is discouraging. The protest against these huge monopolistic combinations is becoming loud and angry, and the threats of repressive legislation are more pronounced. Kentucky, Tennessee and other Southern States are preparing to fight the scheme to merge all the great railway systems of the South Atlantic States into one giant combination, and this undoubtedly had a determined effect, especially as the proposed meat trust was intended to monopolize the market for a vital necessity of life. Very likely the great packing houses have concluded to wait till the elections are past and the session of Congress is over before completing their combine. They already have a tentative combination, and to proceed with the formation of a trust might cause legislation or legal action to break up their combine entirely.

THE LOW TAX RATE.

The Board of Equalization has fixed the State tax levy at 35.2 cents on the $100 assessed valuation. This is the lowest rate of taxation in the history of the State. While the low rate is in some degree chargeable to the increase in property values, it is in the main due to the economical administration of Governor Gage. Whatever may be said of him about minor matters, it must be admitted that he has reduced the rate of taxation lower than any Governor California has ever had, and this without leaving any deficit for his successor to handle, as was the case with both the Waterman and Markham administrations. This low tax levy will be an excellent campaign argument for the Republicans this fall, for it shows that the promises of economy made in the Republican platform of four years ago have been amply fulfilled.

THE VERMONT ELECTION SHOWS ALMOST A TOTAL DISAPPEARANCE OF THE DEMOCRATIC VOTE.

There were two Republican candidates for Governor, the issue between the factions being to the liquor license question; yet the Democratic candidate received less than one-fourth the number of votes cast for the leading Republican candidate and less than one-third the number cast for the other. Republican dissensions afforded the Democrats an opportunity such as they have not had in fifty years, but their showing was much worse than usual. It looks as if more Democrats voted for the bolting Republican than for the Democratic nominee.

NOTES ABOUT MEN.

Rev. Thomas Dixon has been looking over some piles of Southern newspapers dating back to 1865, and to his astonishment finds that Booker T. Washington's negro education system is mentioned in speeches delivered by Confederate Generals after their return from the Civil War.

According to "The Hatters' Gazette," Edward wears a six and seven-eight hat, so that the head thus measures at the circumference where the hat is worn, twenty-one and three-quarter inches.

Reginald Vanderbilt is the only representative of his family with literary inclinations or ambitions. He has written short stories ever since he was a small boy at school, some of his work showing considerable imagination.

Charles M. Schwab's recent illness is one of the few that he has suffered. He is usually in the best of health, a fact which he attributes to the amount of exercise he takes. Every day he is careful to walk a certain distance and get plenty of fresh air.

James W. McCreck, a farmer living near Gerick, Missouri, took a chance on potatoes this year and used 200 acres in raising them. His venture has proved a great winner. From seven acres he has taken about 2,500 bushels, and he expects to sell his entire crop at 30 cents a bushel. He estimates his expenses per acre at $13.30 and his net profits at $12.70.

There is a hot three-cornered fight in Kansas as to whether Congressman Long, Congressman Curtis or Governor Stanley shall succeed United States Senator Harris. Long and Curtis seem to be in the lead just now, but Stanley is also coming strong. He is a first-class "quicker" and manages his own work very well, not delegating to others what he can do himself.

The late Dr. Talmage once called on his lawyer and told him of his parishioners there on legal business of a private nature. "Ah, do not," called the lawyer, "know as you replied, Talmage, they are two of your flock. May I ask without impertinence if you regard them as black sheep or white?" "I don't know," replied Talmage, "but I am very certain that if they remain here long they will be fleeced."

Sweet time of peace when the swallows fly.

To home and rest 'neath the quiet eaves,
When crimson bars are across the sky,
And shadows lengthen behind the sheaves.

When willows dip in a golden pool,
And the dark massed elms are soft and blurred;
When sun-parched meadows grow damp,
And distant cries of the night are heard.

Then darkness broods in the dusky lanes,
Where the pale-winged moths flit to and fro;
While over the eastern hill remains
The tender light of the after-glow.

Shine, Evening Star! for the hour is thine;
Shy rival though to the setting sun;
First-born of night with thy charm divine,
Shed out thy light for the day to come.

Shed forth from thy poppy-fields, O sleep,
The earth frowns weary and faint with rest;
Tough her tired eyes with thy lips, and
Tender her head soft pillowed upon thy breast.

Come, gentle Night, o'er the misty world;
With silver garments thyself adorn;
And bring, safe hid in thy mantle's fold,
The golden key to the gates of Morn.

AN INTERESTING WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Edith Bernays and Percy G. Hawley was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride, 481 Merrimack street. The Rev. C. R. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church, officiated. About fifty guests were present at the wedding, which, though unostentatious, was an unusually pretty affair. The decorations were simple and artistic, the color scheme being pink and green. One corner of the parlor had been converted into a bower, from the center of which a floral bell was suspended with garlands of pink anemones.

Two little flower-bearers, Anna Louise Bernays and Susanna Miller, wearing white and carrying baskets of pink asters and the way for the bride. The bride, a petite blonde, wore a gown of white organdie over white peau de soie. The skirt was elaborately trimmed with tiny ruffles and the bodice was almost entirely of fine lace, with giraffe effect. The veil was pinned to the hair with pink roses and diamonds the groom's gift. The bride's bouquet was a shower of maidenhair fern.

The maid of honor, Miss Myrtle Rist-enpatt of Berkeley, was gowned in white organdie over pink silk and carried pink carnations. Charles Fowler Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Ethel Nourse of San Francisco.

A wedding supper was served, the decorations in the dining-room being of rose pink asters. The rich-hued table was backed against the ceiling on the mantel and also adorned the table and chandeliers.

After the groom associated with the Sunset Telephone Company in this city. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Hawley will be "at home" at 12-12 Alameda avenue, where the groom has prepared a cozy home for his bride.

OAKLAND CLUB.

Among those who will contribute to what promises to be a pleasant program at the Oakland Club's opening reception this afternoon will be Miss Julia Tate, a talented society girl from San Francisco. Miss Tate is a musician of more than ordinary ability and her playing was highly complimented by Walter Damsch, for whom she gave a piano recital when he was last in San Francisco. Tomorrow she will render "Gould's" "Spring" and "Love's Dream" by Liszt.

Mrs. Fred Stoop, who is very clever in her "baby songs," will be heard, and when Mrs. Stoop sings, she will give a couple of vocal selections. Miss Pearl King of East Oakland will give a dramatic recitation, entitled "The Bull of Fieffe." An interesting feature will be a short talk by Miss Mary McLees, telling how vacation schools are conducted in various cities in the United States and England. Miss McLees recently returned from an Eastern tour and will speak from personal observation.

COUNCIL ACTS ON ROUTINE.

RAILROAD FRANCHISE DID NOT COME UP—NEW STREETS OPENED.

The City Council convened last night at the Adelphi and Golden Gate Sanitary Boards. There were present Councilmen Bishop, Boyer, Cadman, Courtney, Cuvellier, Fitzgerald, Ruch, Wallace, Wixson and President Schaffner. There being no business before the Sanitary boards they adjourned until September 8, at which time they will consider the tax levy for the districts for the next fiscal year.

NO RAILROAD FRANCHISE.

The new railroad did not apply for a franchise last night owing to a hitch in the framing of the resolution granting the franchise. Attorneys Reed and Nussbaumer, representing the railroad interests, stated that it was probable that at the next meeting of the Council the defect in the preliminary papers would be remedied.

NEW STREETS.

A resolution accepting streets dedicated by Henry C. Campbell, and W. C. B. de Freney in the Walsworth Tract was adopted. The new streets are situated near Twenty ninth and Fairmount streets and were dedicated to the city in order to place the Walsworth tract on the market.

FOURTH AVENUE SEWER.

The hearing of the protests of H. N. Morse against a sewer being constructed in Fourth avenue, was postponed until next Monday evening. J. C. Jordan was the only one of the protesters who was represented at the Council.

THE SUMMER CHILL.

Dar's mystery in de weather, An' I sholy puzzles me. If it'll pass how August, What will January be? —Washington Star.

A RECALTRANT PRINCESS.

In 1814 the Prince Regent of England, afterward King George IV., was anxious to get rid of his wife, the Princess Charlotte, and engaged her to the Prince of Orange, afterward King William III. of the Netherlands. The princess, however, was not fond of the Prince of Orange. Thereupon, on July 12, her father announced to her that all her ladies would be changed. While she was still in her room, she put on a black staircase, called a hawkey cut, and drove to her mother's house. Lord Chancellor Eldon, the Duke of York (her uncle), and other great personages, went to fetch her back. "But," says Eldon, "home she would not go. She kicked and hounded, and would not get into to do my office as gently as I could. I told her I was sorry for it, but until she did go, she would be obliged to enter into us as we would not leave her." At last she went back in the Duke of York's carriage at about 5 a. m. She afterward married Prince Leopold, who not only deplored the Prince of Orange's intended bride but afterward took from him half of his kingdom of the Netherlands, making himself king of the Belgians.

DID CHRIST WEAR A BEARD?

M. de Mily, distinguished French archaeologist, has for some time been trying to find out whether Christ had a beard or not. He recently submitted to the Academy of Inscriptions and Belles-Lettres in Paris a lengthy paper on the subject. In it he minutely described and criticized all the portraits of Christ which are known to exist, and in conclusion he said that, in view of recent discoveries, he felt bound to conclude that during the first centuries of the Christian era Christ was always represented as beardless.

He referred particularly to two recent discoveries, that of the beautiful statue of Christ, dating back to the eleventh century, which was acquired some time ago by the Berlin Museum, and that of the Coptic fresco of Beut in Upper Egypt, which was unearthed a few weeks ago by M. Clehat. M. de Mily even maintained that if Christ did not wear a beard, Cecil Torr may not be very far wrong in claiming that he was a Jew in his twenty-third year. Instead of his thirty-third year, as has been hitherto supposed.
